

NVIS element and grounding kit

A single wire NVIS element that attaches to the top bolt of an AutoMatch. Provides directionality and enhances NVIS in the direction the distal end of the NVIS is run. The grounded counterpoise wire then attaches to the bottom bolt of the AutoMatch, which completes the circuit by providing a path for common mode current to ground.

We listen!

Specifications, prices, and descriptions are subject to change without notice.